

Label Solutions Almost as Valuable as Your Jewelry

Whether you need crisp, consistently positioned, scannable bar codes to achieve accurate, efficient inventory tracking and point-of-sale checkout—or you need legible, attractive price tags—count on Zebra's high-quality, smudge-proof jewelry labels. Zebra's thermal-printer labels are so durable, stores rarely (if ever!) need to replace damaged labels. Think of the cost and time savings!

Zebra® Jewelry Labels

Strong Performers with Superb Bar Code Scannability

Of top-quality, laboratory-tested label stock—yet competitive in price—Genuine Zebra jewelry tags are made to a higher standard to perform to your strictest expectations. Expect even better print quality from these smudge-proof, tear-resistant tags when you pair them with Zebra thermal printers, for which they are specifically engineered. Require a custom size, shape, or color? Just ask. Custom labels arrive in as few as four working days. And in-stock items ship within one business day!

Highly Reliable Jewelry Tag Performances

- Excellent tear resistance—Lowers your costs by eliminating tag damage and replacement costs
- Smudge-proof—Improves bar code scan rates and enhances pricing tag aesthetics and legibility
- Waterproof—Safe to use in jewelry steamers
- Tack-free adhesive—Adheres the label to itself and not the jewelry
- Convenient preprinted stock and custom sizes available

Zebra's Supplies inside sales team offers one-on-one consulting to help you find the right media solution for you. Call Zebra to learn more today at +1 866 230 9495!

Tags You'll Be Proud To Use on Your Finest Pieces

With Genuine Zebra jewelry tags you get the consistent, reliable performance that Zebra is known for.

- Print directly to the tag instead of to a label that you then apply to a tag—no more redundant work!
- Partial prints are a thing of the past—print complete bar codes in the same location again and again
- Scan crisp and clear bar codes the first time, and every time!
- Reduce replacement shipping costs due to damage or tears
- Select from a variety of jewelry label types—there's a tag for every jewelry need

There's a Zebra Label and Printer Solution Perfect for Your Retail Jewelry Applications!
